

Hello one and all

Audition Call for our first 2025 performance

Our Busselton Repertory Club are planning to produce a short family show in January to replace our usual annual Pantomime.

As our Weld Theatre is not yet available, performances will be at the Busselton Senior Citizens' Centre from 10 January 2025. Rehearsals will commence in November.

The show will be "It's the Same the Whole World Over", a short show for all the family, almost a pantomime, but not a pantomime, with comedy, audience involvement and some of the usual villains, heroes and shenanigans!! Because of logistics, space and prep, there will be a much smaller cast, smaller chorus, etc. We will return to our traditional iconic full Pantomime in January 2026. Yay!!

Proposed dates for performance are:

Friday 10 January 7.00pm

Saturday 11 January 2.00pm

Sunday 12 January 2.00pm

Friday 17 January 7.00pm

Saturday 18 January 7.00pm

Sunday 19 January 2.00pm

NARRATOR Our story this evening displays Mankind in all its guises. From weakness to strength, from courage to cowardice, from triumph to misery, from the utmost depths of villainy to the loftiest pinnacles of virtue. In it we trace the story of the Stickfast family - Lucy, her mother and her brother, Percy - as they move from deprivation and despair, through hope, expectation and joy to the simple moving tragedy of final defeat. It is a very human tale, full of instruction. The scene opens in the Stickfast attic.
